

July 26, 2012
Battle House Hotel
AL-APSE

“A Night at the Crystal Ball”

Alabama APSE is sponsoring an evening in the Crystal Ballroom at the Battle House Hotel to honor this years winners of the annual awards. The Ball will be an opportunity to dress up and step out for an unforgettable conference experience. To make the event complete, nominations are being sought for applicants to compete for the title of King and Queen of the Ball. If you know of someone who typically attends this event and would be delighted to run for the 2012 AL-APSE Queen and King, please submit their name and contact information to alabamaapse@aol.com. The nominees selected will be asked to solicit votes between February and July for $1.00 per vote. The nominees collecting the most votes will be selected as the winners. The funds raised from this contest will be used to support the Charles “Chuck” Sheehan Scholarship. This scholarship is awarded annually to an individual with a disability pursuing higher learning. A maximum of 10 males and 10 females will be selected to compete. A complete list of candidates will be posted at www.al-apse.org once selected.

Again, please submit to alabamaapse@aol.com

For King and Queen

Nominee Name Nominator Address, Email and Telephone Number
